

FAMOUS SKYSCRAPERS AROUND THE WORLD

Task

You create a poster about a famous skyscraper. Your poster should include the following things:

- Basic Information (height, location, year it was built,...) → Darf in Steckbriefform sein
- What is inside your tower? → kurzer Text
- Fun Facts, interesting details
- Pictures, drawings etc.

| Tower                  | Person | Tower                 | Person |
|------------------------|--------|-----------------------|--------|
| Turning Torso          |        | Marina Bay Sands      |        |
| Torre Agbar            |        | Lakhta Center         |        |
| Taipei 101             |        | Kingdom Centre        |        |
| Shanghai Tower         |        | Empire State Building |        |
| Royal Clock Tower      |        | Chrysler Building     |        |
| Q1 Tower               |        | Burj Khalifa          |        |
| Petronas Towers        |        | Al Hamra Tower        |        |
| One World Trade Center |        |                       |        |

Criteria

|                                                                                                                                                                                                        | total points | your points |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|-------------|
| Your poster measures at least 1 A3-page, it is structured and is clearly laid out, the layout suits (passt zu) your skyscraper.                                                                        | 4            |             |
| The information about your skyscraper is correct, all the points listed in the task can be found in your fact sheet. You chose interesting facts and your poster includes everything one need to know. | 6            |             |
| The language you use is correct. The grammatical tenses we already learned (present simple, past simple, present continuous) are used correctly.                                                       | 6            |             |
| Your poster is made carefully (sorgfältig) and has an interesting layout.                                                                                                                              | 2            |             |

P.S. I can see if you used deepl or Google Translator. Try to make your own sentences! 😊